From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 13.

Cracow, December 25.

THE under Chancellor of the Crown, the Biſhop of Culm, the Palatin of Ruſſia, and ſeveral other Perſons of Note, are at Borchnia five Miles from hence, and will aſſiſt in the great Council the King has caus'd to be ſummon'd to meet at Wiſnits the 8th of next Month: And we expect many Senators and Deputies from the Palatinats that continue loyal to his Poliſh Majeſty. 'Tis ſuppos'd his ſaid Majeſty will come from Saxony time enough to be at the opening of this Council. The Army of the Crown have within theſe few days renounc'd all Obedience to Prince Lubomirski, and have put themſelves under the Command of the Marſhal of the Confederacy: And after having diſpatch'd Deputies to acquaint King Auguſtus what paſs'd in the Council of War held at Kielk, that Army is ſeparated and gone into Winter Quarters, upon the Lands of the Cardinal Primate and others. The Plague begins to abate in Podolia and Ruſſia, but rages terribly in Volhinia. In the late Council of War held at Kielk by the principal Officers of the Confederated Crown Army, the following Reſolutions were paſs'd. I. That all the Officers and Soldiers ſhould caſt off all Obedience to Prince Lubomirski, and put themſelves under the Command of the Marſhal of the Confederacy. II. That all the other Troops of the Crown, that are under the Command of any other Perſon, ſhould joyn the ſaid Confederate Army, on the Penalty of loſing their Arrears, and of being treated as Rebels. III. That a new Great Marſhal or General and an under Marſhal ſhould be choſen; And that every 3 Years there ſhould be a new Election of both Marſhals.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Jan. 8.

Dreſden, Dec. 31. 'Tis advis'd from Poland, that the Nobility of Great Poland have unanimouſly declar'd for King Staniſlaus, and that they have diſpatch'd 4 Deputies to the Cardinal Primate, to deſire him to repair to Poſnania and iſſue Univerſalia for convening a General Diet; but 'tis thought his Eminency will not embroil himſelf again with publick Affairs. The Princes James and Conſtantine Sobieski are not ſet at Liberty yet.

From the Amſterdam Courant, Jan. 15.

Breſlau, Jan. 4. We are apprehenſive the Swedes have form'd ſome deſign againſt this City; becauſe they are cauſeleſly complaining continually to our Magiſtrates that the Saxons are allow'd too much Liberty in this Country; without conſidering that they themſelves take the Liberty of roving about the Country 100 of them in a Company, and of Lifting Men underhend into their Service. They pretend alſo to take very ill an Order that has been publiſh'd, forbidding the conveying of Men, Horſes or Arms out of Sileſia. Letters from Saxony ſay, that the Cardinal Primate has return'd Anſwer to a Letter ſent to him by the pretended New King Staniſlaus inviting him to aſſiſt in the General Diet he deſigns to Summons, that he cannot repair to that Diet before all the Avenues from Saxony to Poland be ſhut up againſt King Auguſtus, and his Electorate of Saxony ruin'd, ſeeing 'tis from thence he draws Troops to maintain the War in Poland.

Dreſden, Jan. 7. The 5th the King of Poland, the Duke of Saxe-Weyſſenfelts, and many Perſons of Quality, went from hence to Leipſick; and laſt Night there was an Appearance of above 50 Lords and others of the Court at the Prince of Furſtemberg's Palace, his Poliſh Majeſty being there likewiſe. His Majeſty is continually taken up with regulating all things neceſſary for the next Campaign. He will continue at Leipſich above a Week longer.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 15.

Ratisbon, Jan. 5. Laſt Week arriv'd here from Cleves a Guardian of the Order of St. Francis, nam'd Brauninghof; to acquaint the Envoys of the Electors and other Roman Catholick Princes, that the King of Pruſſia has actually caus'd to be ſignified to the Clergy of the Roman Catholick Perſwaſion in that Dutchy, that he deſign'd to introduce the Exerciſe of the Proteſtant Religion into their Churches, and to treat the Roman Catholicks in the ſame manner the Proteſtants are us'd in the Lower Palatinat and other Parts of Germany. This Father Guardian having already viſited all the Roman Catholick Envoys, has urgently preſs'd them to give reaſonable and ſpeedy ſatisfaction to the Evangelick Body of the Empire upon their Grievances, to divert the Storm the Roman Catholicks in the Dominions of the King of Pruſſia are threaten'd with: He is to proceed from hence to Paſſau, to make the ſame Remonſtrances to the Cardinal de Lamberg the Emperor's principal Plenipotentiary to the Diet, who 'tis expected will ſhortly return hither. The Proteſtant Miniſters had a long Conference together on Sunday laſt in the Evening, at which time the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter formally notified to the reſt, the firm Reſolution his Maſter has taken to treat the Roman Catholicks in his Dominions in the ſame manner the Proteſtants of the Lower Palatinat have been treated, unleſs the Grievances of thoſe Proteſtants be ſpeedily redreſs'd by the Diet. Prince Eugene of Savoy, before he left Bavaria to return to Vienna, ſent Order to our Magiſtrates not to ſuffer any Officers but Imperialiſts to raiſe Men in this City or the Territory belonging to it. Great Alterations have been made in the Miniſtry and among the Officers of the Count of Munich. The Jeſuite Schmaker her Electoral Highneſs's Confeſſor is gone from thence to Bruſſels; when he returns, which he will do within a Month, it will be known whether the Electoreſs will leave Bavaria or not, to go to Rome or Bruſſels.

Paris, Jan. 9. The 4th inſtant the Princeſs of Urſini, lately firſt Lady of the Bed-Chamber to the Queen of Spain, arriv'd here being attended into the Town by the Coaches of the Duke of Alva Ambaſſador Extraordinary of Spain and of the Dutcheſs his Lady, which were ſent to meet her 10 Leagues off.

They

They entertain'd her with a magnificent Supper, to which they invited ſeveral Noblemen and Ladies of Quality. The next day the Marquis de Torci Miniſter and Secretary of State, made her a Viſit, and had a long Conference with her, after which he return'd to Marli. The King has made ſome new Brigadiers General, among them Collonel Villars who commands in Caſtiglione in Italy. The Duke de la Feuillade is arriv'd at Court from Savoy, and has beeu receiv'd very favourably by his Majeſty. Beſides the neceſſary Recruits for his Majeſty's ſeveral Armies, and the new Levies, all the Infantry already eſtabliſh'd are to be augmented with 12 Men each Company, and each Troop of Horſe with 5; And new Orders are diſpatch'd to haſten theſe Levies, that the Troops may take the Field in March. Letters from Lions of the 3d inſtant adviſe, that 12000 Recruits from divers Provinces of the Kingdom, were marching towards Antibes in Provence; where they are to be embark'd to be tranſported to Genoa, and thence are to march part to the Army under the Duke of Vendome in Piemont, and the reſt to that commanded by the Grand Prior in the Breſſan. Theſe Letters add, that the King's Commiſſaries are getting together Stores of Oats and Hay in Lions and ſeveral Towns ſituate on the Rhone and the Sone, which Stores are to be tranſported to Final, thence to be conveigh'd to the Armies we have mention'd. 'Tis reported his Majeſty has added 60000 Louis d'Or a Year, to the Sum he allows the Pretended Prince of Wales, for maintaining his Court; And that the ſaid Pretended Prince will make the next Campaign.
